LE MESSAGE DE LA PRÉSIDENTE

JOYEUX NOËL ET BONNE ANNÉE

Chers amis, je suis heureuse de partager avec vous le message ci-dessous, de notre Conseiller Culturel à l'Ambassade de France à New York, M. Antonin Baudry. Il est clair que notre but de soutenir la langue et la culture française, est toujours important et apprécié par la France. Imaginez que nous, Alliance Française de Bonita Springs, faisons partie de plus de 1.3 million d'Américains qui parlent le français ! Vive la France !

Mimi Gregory

Chers amis,

Je suis très heureux, en tant que Conseiller Culturel, de pouvoir témoigner de la très sincère gratitude de l'Ambassade de France pour la superbe action menée par les Alliances Françaises. Ensemble, nous nous inscrivons dans une histoire et assurons la continuité de la présence française aux Etats-Unis. Dans chacun des Etats, dans chacune des villes, les Alliances Françaises font vivre des morceaux de notre France et préservent des pans essentiels de notre culture dans un paysage de plus en plus globalisé.

Nous travaillons, par exemple, de façon très étroite au maintien et à la diffusion de la langue française, dans un pays où le multilinguisme devient la règle commune des échanges entre les différentes communautés. En 2012, plus de 1,3 million d'Américains parlent le français chez eux, ce qui en fait la quatrième langue étrangère en usage aux Etats-Unis. C'est le signe d'un tissu linguistique et culturel francophone vivace et toujours d'actualité.

Apprendre le français, ce n'est pas seulement apprendre des mots, c'est apprendre une façon de penser, une philosophie : l'esprit de René Descartes réfracté par la poésie de Marcel Proust. C'est pour cette forme d'ouverture d'esprit que nous nous battons, et, dans cette lutte, nous pouvons compter sur la formidable énergie des Alliances Françaises qui irriguent l'ensemble du territoire américain.

Antonin Baudry, Conseiller Culturel

School Reception Held for Students and New Teachers

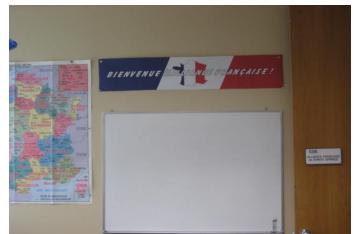

A Wine and cheese Reception was held October 3rd at our newly refurbished school classroom.

The late afternoon social gathering provided the opportunity for new and returning students at the Beginner and intermediate levels to meet and greet our new instructors: Marie-Noëlle Bases and Caroline Ferrari.

Considering the early October date, a number of students and some spouses attended the reception where students and teachers met one another in a casual and enjoyable atmosphere. There was excitement for the new season of classes to begin.

The event was hosted by Mimi Gregory and Joyce and Bill Weidenfeller.

Holiday Wines Tasting at Beachwalk Clubhouse

Le 4 Décembre, une trentaine de nos membres étaient réunis au Beachwalk Clubhouse pour déguster quatre bons vins Français [ bien sûr !].

Grâce à Joanne Jacobs qui avait organisé notre programme, la soirée de dégustation s'est déroulée dans une atmosphère chaleureuse et amicale sous la direction de John Wernette, expert en vins et membre de notre chapitre.

Nous avons dégusté : un Blanc de Blanc de François Montand, un Pinot Blanc d'Alsace, Huvel Cuvée Les Amours 2008, Aimé Roquesante Rosé, Côtes de Provence 2011, et pour terminer un Malbec, Clos La Coutale, Cahors 2009.

Le tout était accompagné de nombreux hors-d'œuvre.

Le vin de Cahors a été le plus apprécié, suivi du Rosé de Provence. Nous avons passé une très bonne et joyeuse soirée entre amis pour débuter les fêtes de Noël.

Le Rendez-Vous du 8 Novembre 2012

Les Élections Américaines et Françaises. Enfin finies. Quelles conséquences maintenant.

Conférencier: Dr. Frank Peel

Le Jeudi 8 Novembre, 64 de nos membres se sont retrouvés à Pelican Marsh pour un bon déjeuner et le plaisir d'entendre Dr. Frank Peel partager avec nous ses idées sur la façon dont les élections françaises en Mai et celles des États-Unis 2 jours auparavant risquent de changer la manière dont nous vivons.

Dr. Peel was born in England, and received his education in England, France, the United States and Austria. As a boy he was a bicycle messenger for the anti-aircraft defenses in London. He later served in the U.S. army, and for a while after that was a Wall Street lawyer, before he started working for the U.N. in Geneva for what he thought would be a one-year stint. He stayed on for 51 years, serving as Deputy Director of the Wildlife Fund, and also creating the first television program in English in Europe.

He remained involved with U.S. politics during those years, working on Adlai Stevenson's campaign, and later on working with Jimmy Carter and then with John McCain.

His gut feeling about the American election is that although President Obama clearly won, he only won by 2% of the vote (with or without the Florida delegates, it must be said), and that is not a very strong mandate. Besides, the House still has a Republican majority; therefore it means the president has to reach out to both sides of the aisle. Will the Republicans cooperate? Will the Tea Party be willing to compromise?

En France l'élection de François Hollande semble un peu un repli du pays sur soi.

M. Hollande a toujours été et reste un fonctionnaire alors que M. Sarkozy était un « battant » très impliqué dans la nouvelle vision de l'Europe. M. Hollande semble établir ses plans pour l'avenir sur une base de 5 ans, la durée de son mandat, ce qui défie parfois la logique basée sur d'autres réalités.

Dr. Peel est pessimiste quant à l'avenir de l'Euro, parce qu'il considère que, pour réussir, une union monétaire doit être basée sur une union politique et il ne pense pas que les 17 pays de la Zone Euro constituent une véritable union politique.

Dr. Frank Peel

President Obama's reelection and the fact that the balance of power in both Houses remains the same means that the transition will be smoother than with a lame duck session, but with the “fiscal cliff” looming ahead Congress must get to work right away. By the way, Dr. Peel told us that he asked about the French translation for “fiscal cliff” and was told there was none as the French use the American expression! The truth is that we are at a very critical juncture, with changes as important as the industrial revolution in the 19th century.

Technology and demographics are rapidly modifying the world we live in, and with globalisation that world has become much smaller.

During his campaign President Obama frequently mentioned that he had ended two wars, the one in Iraq and the one in Afghanistan. Does it mean that the U.S. is withdrawing from running the world?

Avec le gouvernement socialiste, il semble que la France aussi se replie sur elle-même. Cette attitude va-t-elle permettre à l'Allemagne de se mettre en avant et de forger ses propres alliances, peut-être avec la Chine et la Russie?

There are many question marks in our future. Dr. Peel's excellent presentation made us more aware of them and helped us understand them in a very lively way and with a sense of humor that translates well in both languages.

He wanted to mention that he had been helped by Paul Bovagnet of Lyon, France, and RL Caron of Naples, Florida, and each received a round of applause for their generous help.

We all felt strongly that we had spent a very enjoyable afternoon and had learned a lot about the state of our world. Let us just hope that the people whom we have elected do a good job for our countries and for the world.

Catherine Rapuano

Le Rendez-Vous du 13 Décembre 2012

History was recited in epic form by guest speaker David Worthington to our December Alliance luncheon attendees. Fifty of us were reminded of the ending of twenty years of tyranny in Europe perpetrated by that clever fellow Napoleon Bonaparte, and David's special interest in that famous battle brought back the details of that moment which also ended Napoleon's "second coming".

David's interest in history began with his great admiration of Admiral Lord Nelson and he is an avid collector of memorabilia of this important time in history. The recitation, it must be noted, was of David's own verse, four pages of history in metric form which showed his devotion to this famous, historic engagement: "starring" the Prussian, Marshall Blucher, the Duke of Wellington and, of course, Bonaparte. [Later sent to a retirement community on St. Helena].

*And for all time, it should be known,
Never was France more nobly shown.
A French soldier in ranks was seen,
Arm shattered by cannon's careen,
To wrench it off and then retort,
«Vive l'Empereur» jusqu'à la mort!*

Thank you, David, for this wonderful presentation.

Paul Sinesi died suddenly on July 5th after a brief illness. Paul was a devoted member of our Alliance Française chapter and was also a long time member of the Alliance chapter in Boston. He will be remembered by all of us for his devotion and appreciation of the mission of the Alliance Française worldwide, and we send our sympathy to his dear wife, Nancy.

Our sympathies go out to Karin Holmes and her family for the loss of Robert Holmes, on September 16th. Bob fought a long and valiant battle against cancer and his courage was enduring. I quote from his Memorial Service, "If you are looking for me, Look into your hearts, I live through your memories."

Quel beau jeu de mots !

JOLIMENT BIEN DIT ! L'emploi du pronom indéfini

Il était une fois quatre individus qu'on appelait

Tout le monde—Quelqu'un—Chacun—et Personne

Il y avait un important travail à faire,

Et on a demandé à Tout le monde de le faire.

Tout le monde était persuadé que Quelqu'un le ferait.

Chacun pouvait l'avoir fait, mais en réalité Personne ne le fit.

Quelqu'un se fâcha car c'était le travail de Tout le monde!

Tout le monde pensa que Chacun pouvait le faire

Et Personne ne doutait que Quelqu'un le ferait

En fin de compte Tout le monde fit des reproches à Chacun

Parce que Personne n'avait fait ce que Quelqu'un aurait pu faire.

MORALITÉ

Sans vouloir le reprocher à Tout le monde

Il serait bon que Chacun

Fasse ce qu'il doit sans nourrir l'espoir

Que Quelqu'un le fera à sa place

Car l'expérience montre que

Là où on attend Quelqu'un,

Généralement on ne trouve Personne!

CONCLUSION

Je vais le transférer à Tout le monde afin que Chacun puisse l'envoyer à Quelqu'un sans oublier Personne

Alliance Française Euro Book Club

The Euroreview of Contemporary European Literature

Based on the great success of the European Book Clubs at the Alliances Françaises in Washington and New York, our Alliance chapter here in Bonita Springs joined this trend, offering our membership the opportunity to discover what is happening in European literature today.

The books chosen offer the chance to read from contemporary authors that have made their mark in the countries of the European Community; thus revealing new talents and trends in the latest best sellers.

The books are all read in their English translation and will be discussed at a monthly meeting. In offering this new project, the Alliance opens the door to members whose French may still be a "works in progress", but their interest in Europe can be embellished by these literary works.

During the past season, our book club members met for an hour or more, once per month, to critique the chosen book. We settled into a solid group of 10 and suggestions were made by members and other Alliances with book clubs. Everyone participated in the discussion and opinions, and each person was encouraged to present a book. Beginning, on January 17th , 2013 at 4:00 pm, February 21st, 2013 and March 21st, we will meet at the « Montenero » 7575 Pelican Bay Blvd, hosted by Susanne Kuhn, in the Card Room on the lobby floor.

On January 17th , 2013: In the program: "One Book/ One Federation":

The title of the book in french, is: La petite fille de Monsieur Linh by Philippe Claudel

- Philippe Claudel's short novel La Petite Fille de Monsieur Linh is a unique and polished love story. The story of true love rising up between two old men who in their loneliness find companionship in the most unlikely of places – a park bench in a noisy French city. Monsieur Linh is a Vietnamese refugee, washed ashore with a wave of other destitute boat people like himself. He is unbelievably sad for the village and homeland he's left behind, for the son and daughter-in-law who were killed. His only reason to live is the infant granddaughter he has carried with him across the ocean, in the hopes of giving her a new home.

On February 21st, 2013 : The title of the book is : A Secret Kept By Tatiana de Rosnay

- Antoine Rey thought he had the perfect surprise for his sister Mélanie's birthday: a weekend by the sea at Noirmoutier Island, where the pair spent many happy childhood summers playing on the beach. It had been too long, Antoine thought, since they'd returned to the island—over thirty years, since their mother died and the family holidays ceased. But the island's haunting beauty triggers more than happy memories; it reminds Mélanie of something unexpected and deeply disturbing about their last island summer. When, on the drive home to Paris, she finally summons the courage to reveal what she knows to Antoine, her emotions overcome her and she loses control of the car. Trapped in the wake of a family secret shrouded by taboo, Antoine must confront his past and also his troubled relationships with his own children. How well does he really know his mother, his children, even himself? Suddenly fragile on all fronts – as a son, a husband, a brother and a father – Antoine Rey will soon learn the shocking truth about his family and himself. By turns thrilling and seductive, with a lingering effect that is bittersweet and redeeming, A Secret Kept is the story of a modern family and the invisible ties that hold it together.

On March 21st, 2013 :The Title of the book is : Wolf Hall by Hilary Mantel

- England in the 1520s is a heartbeat from disaster. If the king dies without a male heir, the country could be destroyed by civil war. Henry VIII wants to annul his marriage of twenty years and marry Anne Boleyn. The pope and most of Europe opposes him. Into this impasse steps Thomas Cromwell: a wholly original man, a charmer and a bully, both idealist and opportunist, astute in reading people, and implacable in his ambition. But Henry is volatile: one day tender, one day murderous. Cromwell helps him break the opposition, but what will be the price of his triumph?

In inimitable style, Hilary Mantel's Wolf Hall is a darkly brilliant reimagining of life under Henry VIII. . . . Magnificent. "(The Boston Globe).
